DETENTION ORDER - 1

organization who coordinated the distribution of large quantities of cocaine and marijuana in the United States and Canada. The government proffered evidence that defendant has made threats of violence against other individuals who owe the organization money. The drug trafficking organization generated large amounts of cash. Much of these proceeds are unaccounted for and thus the defendant may have access to assets which will allow him to flee. Additionally, the assets the defendant has reported do not square with the amount of money the organization has generated. The government proffered that defendant's guideline range is 360 months to life in prison and that he faces a mandatory ten years of prison if convicted. These stiff penalties provide defendant with a substantial incentive to flee.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services
